I know that movie Machinist was partially filmed here.

Other than that, I don't hear too much about Andorra. I am sure it is a beautiful place. It needs more publicity.

Hi cindy, yes Andorra is the very beautiful place to travel. I have been there once and it was so much fun on the trip. Also, you can plan a trip to Paris it's also a beautiful place and right now I am here but very soon I will travel paris to zurich where I have to meet my sister and I will surely get some time to travel there.

Cheers!

Andorra needs more publicity, yes, and it needs more places to accommodate tourists. It is a beautiful place, but it needs to invest more on tourism.
